

The John A. Kinneman Scholarship

Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Illinois State University

This $600 scholarship is awarded to a junior or senior sociology major who has demonstrated a serious record of academic excellence. The award is the highest academic honor the department bestows on an undergraduate student.

Date _____

Name of Applicant _____ UID # _____

ISU Address _____ Phone _____

Permanent Address _____

Permanent Phone () _____

Class Standing () Junior () Senior Sociology Major? () Yes () No

Cumulative GPA at ISU _____ Major GPA _____

Career Statement: Prepare a brief statement (1-2 paragraphs) describing your career goals.

Essays: Write a separate, one page essay on each of the following:

- (1) Describe your sociological experience at Illinois State and discuss the three most important ways in which the faculty, courses, and other sociology majors have helped you develop a sociological perspective.
- (2) Discuss the significance of the sociological perspective for living in the 21st century.

References:

Please provide the selection committee with the names of the two sociology faculty members who have agreed to write letters of reference for you. These letters should be sent directly to the Undergraduate Advisor.

- 1) _____
- 2) _____

Submission Instructions:

Submit this form, along with your career statement and essays, to: Undergraduate Advisor, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, Campus Box 4660, Illinois State University, Normal, IL 61790-4660. All reference letters should be sent directly to the Undergraduate Advisor.